

PRIVACY POLICY NOTICE

L & W Financial, LLC dba Smith & Wyatt

September 28, 2023

L & W Financial, LLC dba Smith & Wyatt is an investment advisory firm registered with the SEC and has adopted this privacy policy with recognition that protecting the privacy and security of the personal information we obtain about our customers is an important responsibility. We also know that you expect us to service you in an accurate and efficient manner. To do so, we must collect and maintain certain personal information about you. We want you to know what information we collect and how we use and safeguard that information.

Information We Collect: We collect certain nonpublic information about you ("Customer Information"). The essential purpose for collecting Customer Information is to allow us to provide advisory services to you. Customer Information we collect may include:

- Information that you provide on applications or other forms. This Customer Information may include personal and household information such as income, spending habits, investment objectives, financial goals, statements of account, and other records concerning your financial condition and assets, together with information concerning employee benefits and retirement plan interests, wills, trusts, mortgages and tax returns.
- Identifying information such as your name, age, address, social security number, etc.
- Information about your transactions with us, or others (e.g., broker-dealers, clearing firms, or other chosen investment sponsors).
- Information we receive from consumer reporting agencies (e.g., credit bureaus), as well as other various materials we may use to provide an appropriate recommendation or to fill a service request.

Security of Your Information: We restrict access to your nonpublic personal information to those employees who need to know that information to service your account. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with applicable federal or state standards to protect your nonpublic personal information.

Information We Disclose: We do not disclose the nonpublic personal information we collect about our customers to anyone except: (i) in furtherance of our business relationship with them and then only to those persons necessary to effect the transactions and provide the authorized services (such as broker-dealers, custodians, independent managers etc.); (ii) to persons assessing our compliance with industry standards (e.g., professional licensing authorities, consultants, etc.); (iii) our attorneys, accountants, and auditors; or (iv) as otherwise provided by law.

We are permitted by law to disclose the nonpublic personal information about you to governmental agencies and other third parties in certain circumstances (such as third parties that perform administrative or marketing services on our behalf or for joint marketing programs). These third parties are prohibited to use or share the information for any other purpose.

Former Clients: If you decide to close your account(s) or become an inactive customer, we will adhere to our privacy policies, which may be amended from time to time.

Log Data: When you visit our company website, the firm will collect information that your browser sends to us called Log Data. This Log Data may include information such as your computer's Internet Protocol (IP) address, browser version, pages of our Service that you visit, the time and date of your visit, the time spent on those pages, and other statistics.

Cookies: Cookies are files with a small amount of data that are commonly used as a unique, anonymous identifier. These are sent to your browser from the website you visit and stored on your computer's hard drive.

Smith & Wyatt's website uses these "cookies" to collect information and to improve our Service. You have the option to either accept or refuse these cookies and know when a cookie is being sent to your computer. If you choose to refuse these cookies, you may not be able to use some portions of the firm's website services.

Third-Parties: Smith & Wyatt may share information with third-party companies and individuals due to the following reasons:

- To facilitate our investment advisory services;
- To provide the investment advisory services on our behalf;
- To perform operational-related services; or
- To assist us in analyzing how our investment advisory services are used.
- Pursuant to law, rules, regulations, standard security industry practices, in connection with a subpoena, discovery request, or other legal/regulatory process compelling the sharing of information.

These third parties will have access to your Personal Information to perform the tasks assigned to them on our behalf. They are not allowed to disclose or use the information for any other purpose.

Links to Other Sites: Our website may contain links to other sites that are not operated by us. If you click on a third-party link, you will be directed to that site. Smith & Wyatt strongly advises you to review the Privacy Policy of these websites, as we have no control over and assume no responsibility for the content, privacy policies, or practices of any third-party sites or services.

Changes to Our Privacy Policy: In the event there were to be a material change to our privacy policy regarding how we use your confidential information, we will provide written notice to you. Where applicable, you would be given an opportunity to limit or opt-out of such disclosure arrangements.

Questions: If you have questions about this privacy notice or about the privacy of your customer information call our main number 979-431-5440 and ask to speak to the Chief Compliance Officer.
